

The Modern School Barakhamba Debate

The Modern School Barakhamba debate held on 22nd August witnessed competitive presentation of opinions on the motion- this house believes that celebrities are bad role models. Debaters argued using strong persuasion- rhetoric and style in balance with analysis and reasoning. It was an opportunity to rethink what celebrities symbolise in society, the power of their fame and the workings of a variety of industries like that of entertainment and sports. The discourse was example heavy and full of cases from real life and contemporary relevance. Students from 15 schools engaged with each other's ideas. The esteemed panel of judges interacted with the audience and participants with wonderful insight on the topic, and everyone left after much learning.

Yastika Guru from 10B was awarded the Runner Up trophy.
