

Literati Day Report

Literati Club conducted activities in Middle School on August 25. Participation was compulsory.

The activities were based on books like Matilda, The Thing About Jellyfish and The Ones Who Walk Away from Omelas.

The activities required graphic and written content to test the students on their knowledge of the books read and to make the reluctant readers inquisitive about the books by doing the activities.

