

Sanskriti celebrates its 20th Annual Day

The sylvan surroundings of Sanskriti School, Chanakyapuri were buzzing with activity and music resounding from every nook and corner as the school celebrated its twentieth annual day on 12th October 2018. The guests of honour for the occasion were Mrs Hemi Surendra Singh, founder chairperson, Mrs Roopa Sinha , the present chairperson and other distinguished members of the civil services society. Although everyday is a celebration at Sanskriti of childhood, innocence and values we hold dear, this year the theme was SANGAM, a confluence of ideas.

Students of classes 8,9 and 11 showcased their talent through a play , ODYSSEY TO ENLIGHTENMENT. It's two protagonists, in search of the perfect ideal world take the audience through a journey of enlightenment. Filled with colour , music and dance the protagonists traverse through a plethora of events only to realise that the perfect world only exists within us.

School Principal Mrs Richa Sharma Agnihotri in her welcome address thanked parents and teachers who are the key players in a Sanskritian's journey of learning. According to her, the education of the heart is more important than a regimental curriculum which fails to provide meaningful education in these times of uncertainty.

Annual Sports Day 2018-19

Sanskriti School celebrated Annual Sports Day on 12 October, 2018. Students of Middle School participated in it with verve and vigour. The day began with a melodious song, followed by hoisting of the school flag and a well-synchronised March Past by the four house contingents. The Chief Guest, Mr Sachin Pilot, graced the occasion with his presence and talked about the importance of sports in one's life. Oath was taken by all the students and the torch was lit. The very competent and confident Sanskritians showcased their talents and abilities in a fusion dance performance, basketball drill, aerobics, martial arts, skating and yoga performances. Applause and compliments kept pouring in as parents cheered for the runners in the various races held during the day. Students' hardwork and superlative performances were rewarded by giving them medals in the prize distribution ceremonies held during the programme. By acknowledging and appreciating the efforts made by students, Sanskriti School gave the much-needed recognition to future sports champions. The value of sports in the curriculum was thereby emphasized. The day, dedicated to promoting physical activity and inculcating the spirit of sportsmanship in students, was a true success.
